Update: Identity of apparent medical death of 74-year old Man in Whitnall Park

Milwaukee (1:15 PM): The subject of yesterday's incident in Whitnall Park has been identified as Dusan J. Savic, 74, of Greenfield. The investigation has revealed that Mr. Dusan was walking down a path at Whitnall Park accompanied by a family member when he collapsed. A citizen in the area began CPR, which was taken over by Hales Corners and Franklin Fire Rescue units. He was pronounced deceased by the Paramedic Doctor at 1:00 PM. The investigation is ongoing, by the MCSO CID and Medical Examiner's office.

Original release (07/26/14)

Franklin (12:21 PM): At 12:21 PM, MCSO Communications was advised of the collapse of a 74 year-old M/W in Whitnall Park, in Franklin, near picnic area 7. MCSO Deputies, arriving on scene, joined fire/rescue units from Greendale, Hales Corners, and Franklin, as well as members of the Greendale Police Department. Despite resuscitative efforts, including CPR, the male subject was pronounced dead shortly after 1:00 PM.

This incident is being investigated by MCSO detectives, who are present on scene.

Initial investigation reveals that this death appears to be medical in nature, and no foul play is suspected. The man's collapse was witnessed by several parties, and he was in the park with at least one family member.

There will be an update posted tomorrow, identifying the decedent, following notification to family members.
